

Woodland Summer

Holly Taylor

While visiting the butterfly gardens at the Omaha Zoo, I sat on a bench as all types of butterflies landed on my shirt. It was so calming and I felt as one with nature. It inspired me to learn a little more about the butterflies in the state of Minnesota only to discover we were on a direct flight for them on there way to Mexico. As sure as the mighty Mississippi starts as a babbling brook in northern Minnesota the Monarch comes out of Canada and follows its path for a short distance. The burst of Spring colors and the beautiful butterflies were the inspiration for Woodland Summer. We hope you like the brighter palette we have used in this collection.
