I love colour. All colours. I don't discriminate, I use them all. But there are times when I just need a change, when using more neutrals feels right. These black, grey and ivory tones play beautifully on their own, or they will compliment anything you care to mix them with.

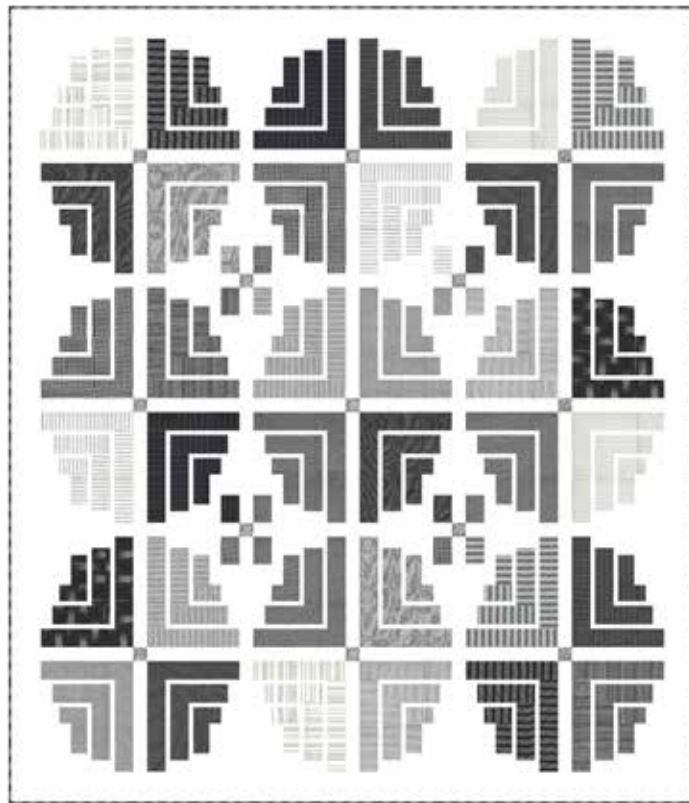

Lollies are about choices, having eight prints in a single width of fabric. They make scrappy easy. The Wovens are buttery soft, suited for applique and piecing, and they add texture to any kind of project.
