We've all been cooped up a little too much lately. When we designed Timber, we wanted to get back to nature. Back to wild and free. Back to living.

Timber celebrates all that is beautiful about the outdoors. This collection is full of color and meaning to us. Golden-yellow for the warmth of the sun, and deep green for life, and continued renewal, and brown for the earth itself. We can't wait to create with Timber - it's a breath of fresh air!
